

ABOUT US

The ProWork Project is part of the Camden Society's Employment & Learning Services.

The Camden Society is a London-wide organisation. We support people with disabilities to improve the quality of their lives in the key areas of supported living, training, employment and leisure.

SUPPORT TO FIND + KEEP A JOB

WHAT IS IT?

If you've been learning at Lambeth College for some time and would like support to move on and get a job or further training for work, the ProWork Project is for you. Our ProWork Employment Advisors work with any student at Lambeth College who wants to progress. Whatever skills, experience and hopes you have, we can support you to leave college behind and get into work to earn money and make new friends.

WHO IS IT FOR?

You can get support from the ProWork Project if you:

- Have a learning disability
- Are a student at a Lambeth College
- Want to move on into work or training

WHAT WILL I GET?

With ProWork, you'll get:

- A training & employment profile to work out your skills, strengths & ambitions
- A career plan
- Training to get ready for work
- Support to visit different employers to work out what jobs are right for you
- Work experience placements
- Training to help you to use public transport and learn new travel routes
- Support to create a CV
- Support to look for and apply for jobs
- Support in work whilst you learn your new job

We can also support your new employer so that they understand how best to support you at work.

WHAT KIND OF JOBS CAN YOU HELP ME TO GET?

Other students who have joined the ProWork Project have left Lambeth College to work for a wide range of employers including: Curzon Cinemas, the National Portrait Gallery, and Lambeth Council.
